

Environmental Expenditure Accounting

The Company places great importance on managing environmental-related expenditures in a transparent and systematic manner, reflecting its commitment to minimizing environmental impacts arising from business operations. These expenditures cover the implementation of conservation and environmental restoration projects, with the goal of fostering long-term sustainability in economic, social, and environmental dimensions.